Now Studying The Book of Matthew

BUT NOW

There are two questions in the world each person must ask and answer: "How can I get to know God personally?" and "How can I go to heaven when I die?" At a basic level, the world's religions attempt to answer these two questions. There is man's way to get to heaven, and there is God's way to get to heaven. Either we have to get to heaven by something we do as some form of piety, sacrifice, or good works, thus earning our way to a better place in eternity, or we can get to heaven because of what God has done for us.

The record of the Bible is very clear. In fact, the Apostle Paul penned an entire epistle about answering the two questions: how to know God and how to be with Him in heaven. We know that epistle to be the Book of Romans. The great subject of Romans is sin and how to deal with it. The depth of human depravity is well known. Humanity is stained by sin in every area of life. The Apostle Paul put it this way, "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23). Therefore, there is no possibility for any person to get to heaven based on what they do.

Paul does not leave us hanging in despair; there is hope! Paul transitions to this hope with two simple words: "But now (Rom. 3:21). But now are two of the greatest words in all the Bible. Those two words changed the course of humanity.

21 But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. 22 This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference, 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. 25 God presented him as a sacrifice of atonement, through faith in his blood. He did this to demonstrate his justice, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished— 26 he did it to demonstrate his justice at present, to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus. 27 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. On what principle? On that of observing the law? No, but on that of faith. 28 For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from observing the law. (Rom. 3:21-28)

God is righteous; we are unrighteous. God demands righteousness; God provides righteousness in His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. God maintains His love for the sinner based on what Jesus did, dying for our sins on the cross. God is just; God is holy; God is love, and God is the justifier. God has made a way whereby we can know Him and go to heaven when we die.

Paul is the champion of the doctrine of "Justification of Faith." Because we believe, because of our faith in the resurrected Son of God, when we get to heaven it won't be because of anything we have done, but because of what Jesus Christ has done for us.

Dr. James O. Davis offers this word picture of arriving in heaven. "The Feast of Mercy is happening in heaven now. Mrs. Grace is standing at the door, admitting those who are there based on mercy. Those who are admitted put on the wedding garment of redemption. Mr. Boasting, in high hat and fine suit, comes to the door. Mrs. Grace says, "No one can be admitted here except those who have come by the mercy of God." Mr. Boasting is turned away."

If you're reading this and do not know the Lord or question when you will spend eternity, then I implore you to contemplate deeply on those two little words, "But now!" There are only two possible ways to make it to heaven: your way or God's way. Choose wisely; now is the time for faith, now is the time to follow Christ.

God bless,
Pastor Tom
